

THE TIM MCCARTHY ENVIRONMENT PRIZE

Awarded by
The New Brunswick Federation of Labour

The Prize is valued at $500. Established in 1991 to recognize the contribution of former NBFEL President Tim McCarthy to the trade union movement, the object of the award is to encourage post secondary studies of one or more years duration in fields relating to environmental protection and education.

Eligible to apply are sons and daughters of members and deceased members or, members in good standing, of local unions affiliated with the New Brunswick Federation of Labour who are entering or continuing their studies in an education program compatible with the object of the award. Previous winners of this award are not eligible.

Selection criteria include aptitude for environmental studies, promise, need and future benefit to society and the environment of the applicant's chosen area of study

Applications must be on the prescribed form and must be received by the secretary of the New Brunswick Federation of Labour Education Committee not later than June 30th of each year.

The successful applicant will be notified immediately when the decision is reached by the New Brunswick Federation of Labour Education Committee and official announcement of the winner will be made by the Secretary-Treasurer of the New Brunswick Federation of Labour.
